

Mr. Atul is Chemical Engineer with post graduate qualification in Management (Operations Research). He has been in different roles throughout his career. He started his career with Camlin Ltd. and was responsible for setting up Green field projects. He was also involved with a Bank for due-diligence of proposals as Technical Officer.

He served Minister of Shipping as Officer on Special Duty and was involved in the policy issues pertaining to efficient port operations and the capacity expansion projects at the major ports on the west coast of India. He has been the team member with the Minister for Shipping, Govt. of India for developing the strategies and policies for development and improvement of ports and shipping services in India. The assignment provided an insight into the decision making process of the Government of India.

With Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu India Pvt. Ltd, he was leading member of the Water Transportation Consultancy team for more than 5 years. During the period he worked on various assignments for both public sector entities as well as private clients.

He also served as Chief Executive Officer of the Goa based Chowgule group entity, headed the team for development of Greenfield Cargo Terminal and state of the art Ship Repair Yard project on the west coast of India. Later he worked as an independent consultant.

Later he took role as an Advisor (Marine & Ports) to Gas Authority of India Limited for their Port related activities and creation of new marine infrastructure such as LNG terminals, Liquid Terminals, Pipelines and Tank Farms, Also assist the government in setting up 4 petroleum technology institutes in the country for providing human resource needed. He also served as adviser(International Projects) with Indian Ports Association.

---